THE BULL FIGHT AT BRAUSS:

Morale Cooraz "in a Horn."

Our friend Isaac Brauss is a devoted love of his life. Hospitable, indolent, wealthy, picks up "a subject." It was precisely in with a rapidity that defled the eye to numthis way that he got hold of a little gasconad- ber the elevations and depressions. This took but little time, and Crappy was extremely anxious to have the passage-at-arms between the little bull -whom Isaac dubbed Napoleon - and himself, to come off immediately. But Isaac, on one excuse and another, deferred the fight to the succeeding Saturday, at which time he notified all his neighbors to be present to see the sport.

Saturday came. So did the neighbors. The little bull (not far advanced beyond calf hood, and sporting a pair of horns not more than six inches in length,) was safely ringed. Napoleon had a few ribbons floating from his little horns, and a small thorn bush depended from his tail, which, as be switched that valuable appendage, irritated his sides and increased his ill-temper. He looked quite savagely at Crapaud, as that individual, astride of Bob, (whose tail was blades, briar hooks, log and ox chains, trace up to the slip-gap of the rude arena. WASHINGTON CITY, July 18, 1856. Messrs. Holden & Wilson :-- I have recently received letters from various points in our State, informing me that the Hon. James Buchanan is charged by the political friends of Mr. Fillmore with having voted for the Bankrupt law of 1841. To save the trouble of answering these enquiries separately, I have written this letter for publication, giving a statement of the facts as I find them.

At the time this act was passed Mr. Buchanan was in the United States Senate. and on July 24, 1841, he is recorded as voting against the passage of the Bankrupt bill. See Senate Journal for that session, page 115. On the same day Mr. Buchanau made a speech against the bill. See Appendix to Congressional Globe for that session, page 205.

On February 25, 1843, Mr. Buchanan is recorded as voting for the repeal of the Bankrupt law. See Senate Journal for that session, page 229.

When the act passed, Mr. Fillmore was a member of the House of Representatives, and on August 18, 1811, he is recorded as voting for the Bankrupt bill. See House Journal for that session, page 378. Mr. Fillmore made a speech in favor of the passage of the bill, August 16, 1841 -See Appendix to Congressional Globe for that session, page 480.

On January 17, 1843, Millard Fillmore is recorded as voting against the repeal of the Bankrupt act. See House Journal for that session, page 215.

It will, therefore, be seen that Mr. Buchanan did not vote for the Bankrupt law, but that Mr. Fillmore did; and moreover that Mr. Buchanan voted for the repeal of the law, while Mr. Fillmore voted against

The ensuing Presidential election will be the most important that has ever taken place since the adoption of the Federal Constitution; and as there ought to be no difference of opinion among the people of North-Carolina upon the great issue involved, it is to be regretted that a large party are engaged in a course calculated to prove disastrous to the interest of the South and fatal to the principles of the Constitution. The large number of those who support Mr. Fillmore are no doubt actuated by pure and patriotic motives but we must remember that this fact wil not render their course, if it succeeds, the less fatal in its consequences to the country The error may be discovered too late to repair the injury it inflicts. Every one who has taken the pains to make an impartial inquiry in regard to the state of political parties and the tone of public sentiment, must know that the con test is between Mr. Buchanan, the candidate of the Democratic Constitutional party on the one side, and Mr. Fremont, the black Republican abolition candidate on the other. No candid well informed man will venture to express the opinion that Mr. Fillmore stands any chance to be elected by the people. Every vote, therefore given for Mr. Fillmore weakens Mr. Buchanan and strengthens Mr. Fre ont .-The Know Nothing party of the North has been absorbed by the black Republicans, and if the Southern Know Nothings should by carrying a few Southern States for Mr. Fillmore, succeed in throwing the election into the House of Representatives, then what have we to expect? Could we reasonably hope that a sound man would be chosen by a body which has elected a black Republican of the docpest dye as its Speaker, and has thus far east every important vote in favor of that party? It is true that in choosing a President the House votes by States, but that does not make the chanan and Mr. Fremont. Those who prefer the former to the latter and desire to preserve the rights of the States and maintain the Constitution, ought to vote for him, regardless of former political association. I am gratified to know that hundreds-including the masses as well as the politicians - who have not heretofore noted with the Democratic party, taking Metcalf, Know Nothing, for Gov the proper view of the subject, have de- Baker Dem termined to sacrifice party for the good of Bell, Whig the country, and are giving a cordial support to Mr. Buchanan.

prospect of success more favorable at this

Mr. Fremont is a purely sectional candidate, representing a party held together by the one idea of inveterate hostility to the domestic institutions of the South, and we have nothing to hope from him. On the other hand Mr. Buchanan is the candidate of a national party; he is a pure man, a statesman of wisdom and experience, and will administer the government according to the principles of the Constitution.

The deepest interest is felt by the Constitutional men of the North and of the Bouth in regard to the result of the August election in our State; and I am sure she will peither disregarde her own interests nor disappoint their expectations.

The result of the North-Carolina elections has often been to me, as you well Boyce, Black Republican, for Gov. 36,030 know, a source of peculiar pride and sat Clark, Democrat, isfaction; but I can assure you that I have never before felt so deep a solicitude for the triumph of the Democratic party, for the reason that we have never had so much staked upon the issue.

Here are ten States, and the people may see what chance Mr FILLMORE has for success in the Free States. If he can carry a solitary State of them all, we should like to see that State pointed out. But Mr. Buchanan can do it, and it is for him that we ought to labor. His election will put every thing right, and it is for him that the good men of the country ought to put forth their energies, and the Black Republicanism will be wiped out forever.

We have no idea of giving a detailed account of their speeches, as nearly every body in the District has heard them. But we will say, (and we think we are as well prepared as any man to give an unbiased judgment in this matter.) that we did not ee so much of the "using-up" as Mr. Pool has been heralded to the world as inflicting upon his competitor. On the contrary, so far as we heard it, we really thought Jordan returned a "Roland" for eral instances, compound interest. Mr. P. dwelt exclusively (so far as his argument, were concerned) upon Mr. J.'s course in the Legislature, and its incidents. JAMES BUCHANAN AND SOUTH-ERN RIGHTS.

Among the most conspicuous and able of Saturday last, in a tone of low defenders of the rights of the South, JAMES BUCHANAN has stood, and still stands preeminent. His record is a record of justice to the South; and his efforts in her behalf loom up before our admiring and grateful gaze like some collossal monument of genuine statesmanship and patriotic wisdom. With sagacious foresight; he has long seen, in the distance, the approach of those dangers with which fanaticism threatened the country, and with carnest zeal sought to ward them off. He did not content him self with a naked expression of opinion on the abstract question of slavery, but he has entered upon its defence like one who sought to guard it on all points of approach Thus, on the veto question, while the Whigs were endeavoring to bring about its virtual abrogation, Mr. Buchanan manfully threw himself into the breach and sterply resisted the movement made to weaken the power of the President. And why? Because he wanted the Veto power question In order that there may be no doubt of the sincerity and earnestness of enough in this world for us both Mr. Buchanan's defence of Southern rights, we make an extract from a speech which reply to Mr. Clay's attack upon the veto States, which compose the weaker portion of the Union, a species of property exists which is now attracting the attention of the whole civilized world. These States never would have become parties to the Union, had not their rights in this property been secured by the Federal Constitution. Foreign and domestic fanatics-some from the belief that they are doing God's service, and others from a desire to divide and destroy this glorious Republic-have conspired to emancipate the Southern slaves. On this question, the people of the South, beyond the limits of their own States. lanthropists are now conducting a crusade over the whole world, and are endeavoring cill any lover of his country say that the President ought not to possess the power of arresting such an act by his veto, until the solemn decision of the people could be or death of the Union? We, of the nonslaveholding States, entered the Union upon the express condition that this property should be protected. Whatever may be our own private opinions in regard to slavery in the abstract, ought we to hazard all the blessings of our free institutionsour Union and our strength-in such a crusade against our brethren of the South? Ought we to jeopardize every political right we hold ear, for the sake of enabling these fanatics to invade Southern rights and render that fair portion of our ommon inheritance a scene of servile war. rapine and murder? Shall we apply the every "Oliver" Pool gave him, with, in sev- torch to the magnificent temple of human liberty which our forefathers reared at the price of blood and treasure, and pormit all we hold dear to perish in the conflagration?

"It is possible that at some future day the majority in Congress may attempt, by indirect means, to emancipate the slaves of the South. There is no knowing through what channel the ever active spirit of fanaticism may seek to accomplish its purpose. Do we feel so secure, in this hour f peril from abroad and peril at home, as to be willing to prostrate any of the barriers which the constitution has reared against hasty and dangerous legislation, No. sir, never was the value of the veto power more manifest than at the present noment. THE undersigned offers for sale his Tract of Landlying near Hickory Ground, Norfolk county, Va., centains about twelve hundred acres, about Three Hundred of which are in a high state of cultivation, and the remainder is in original growth, embracing an immense quantity of excellent timber of every variety. It lies in a compact body, but still is susceptible of a very easy and convenient division into several tracts. It is situated in a fine neighborhood, only one mile from St. Bride's Academy, eighteen from the city of Norfolk, and within a short distance of two water courses leading to that distance of two water courses leading to that city, and is considered a very healthy location. It has upon it a good and convenient Dwelling, with the necessary out houses, and also, a never failing well of pure and excelent water.—Independent of its other attractions, the quantity and the quality of the timber upon it constitutes a very important consideration as this if tute a very important consideration, as this, if judiciously, disposed of, can be made to pay a large sum of the purchase money. Taken altogether, it is justly considered a very valuable tract of land, and the opportunity of making such an investment is one rarely met with. BY VIRTUE OF THE WILL OF RICHARD W. Silvester, deceased, I offer for sale privately that very valuable and well known Tract of Land called SCOTLAND, situated in the lower part of Norfolk County, twenty-three miles from Norfolk City, containing Six Hundred Acres, of which Two Hundred Acres are cleared and under successful cultivation, and the remainder is Wood Land, in Oak, Poplar, Gum, &c. The soil of the whole tract is very fertile. The portion already cleared and cultivated, will yield from 1200 to 1500 barrels of corn, annually, and the Woodland, when cleared, will easily yield ten barrels of Corn to the Acre, for ten years without any manuring .-The land is also very well adapted to the growth of Wheat, of very easy drainage; lies well, in a good neighborhood, and very conveniently locat-ed for market—being within one mile and a half of Indian Creek, a navigable stream; and the Cincinnati Convention. The Committee on Resolutions, by their chairman, Mr. Hallett of Massachusetts submitted the following report, which was adopted by the Convention:

Resolved, That the American Democracy place their trust in the intelligence, the patriotism, and the discriminating justice of the American people.

Resolved, That we regard this as a distinctive feature of our political creed, which we are proud to maintain before the world, as the great moral element in a form of government springing from and upheld by the popular will; and we contrast it with the creed and practice of Federalism, under whatever name or form, which seeks to palsy the will of the constituent, and which conceives no importure too monstrous for the popular credulity.

Resolved, therefore, That, entertaining these views, the Democratic party of this Union, through their Delegates assembled in a general Convention, coming together in a spirit of concord, of devotion to the doctrines and faith of a free representative government, and appealing to their fellow citizens for the rectitude of their intentions, renew and re-assert before the American people, the declarations of principles avowed by them, when, on former occasions, in general Convention, they have presented their candidates for the popular

4. That justice and sound policy forbid the Federal Government to foster one branch of industry to the detriment of any other, or to cherish the interests of one our common country; that every citizen and every section of the country has a right to demand and insist upon an equality of rights and privileges, and to complete and ample protection of persons and property from domestic violence for foreign ag-

6. That the proceeds of the public lands ought to be sacredly applied to the national objects specified in the Constitution; and that we are opposed to any law for the distribution of such proceeds among the States, as alike inexpedient in policy and repugnant to the Constitution.

7. That Congress has no power to charter a national bank; that we believe such an institution one of deadly hostility to the best interests of the country, dangerous to our republican institutions and the liberties of the people, and calculated to place the business of the country within the control of a concentrated money power, and above the laws and the will of the people; and that the results of Democratic legislation in this and all other financial measures upon which issues have been made be tween the two political parties of the country, have demonstrated to candid and practical men of all parties, their soundness, safety, and utility, in all business pur-

1. That Congress has no power under the Constitution, to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of everything appertaining to their own affairs, not prohibited by the Constitution, that all efforts of the abolitionists or others, made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take incipient steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most alarming and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union, and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political in-

2. That the foregoing proposition covers, and was intended to embrace, the whole subject of slavery agitation in Congress; and therefore, the Democratic party of the Union, standing on this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the acts known as the Compromise Measures, settled by the Congress of 1850; "the act for reclaiming fugitives from service or labor," included; which act being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution. cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its effiof Columbia. 2. That this was the basis of the Compromise of 1850, confirmed by both the Democratic and Whig parties in National Conventions, ratified by the peo ple in the election of 1852, and rightly applied to the organization of Territories.

3. That by the uniform application of this democratic principle to the organization of Territories and to the admission of new States, with or without domestic slavery, as they may elect, the equal rights of all the States will be preserved intact, the original compacts of the Constitution maintained inviolate, and the perpetuity and expansion of this Union ensured to its utmost capacity of embracing, in peace and harmony, every future American State that may be constituted or annexed with a republican form of government.

Resolved, That we recognise the right of the people of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the legally and fairly expressed will of the majority of actual residents, and whenever the number of their inhabitants justifies it, to form a constitution, with or without domestic slavery, and be admitted into the Union upon terms of perfect equality with the other States.

Resolved, finally, that in view of the condition of popular institutions in the Old World, and the dangerous tendency of sectional agitation, combined with the attempt to enforce civil and religious disabilities against the right of acquiring and enjoying citizenship in our own land, the high and sacred duty is devolved with increased of the Bank of the United States, and from this country, as the party of the Union, to uphold and maintain the rights of every State, and thereby the Union of the States. and to sustain and advance among us constitutional liberty, by continuing to resist pendence, and sanctioned in the Constitu- all monopolies and exclusive legislation for tion, which makes ours the land of liberty, the benefit of the few, at the expense of the and the asylum of the oppressed of every many, and, by vigilant and constant adhenation, have ever been cardinal principles rence to those principles and the compromiin the Democratic faith, and every attempt | ses of the constitution, which are broad eto bridge the privilege of becoming citi- nough and strong enough to embrace and uphold the Union as it was, the Union as it ought to be resisted with the same spirit is, and the Union as it shall be in the full dend. which swept the alien and sedition laws expansion of the energies and capacities of this great and progressive people.

TION, WEAKNESS MOTHER AND DAUGH-TER CURED—HAMPTON'S TINCTURE

HUNDREDS OF OUR OWN CITIZENS, the Rich, the Poor, everywhere, bear the Read the following certificate from a lady, en dorsed by Postmaster E. P. Cooper:

Capon Bridge,

Hampshire county, Va., March 1, 1854. Mr. E. P. Cooper.—Dear Sir: Agreeable to our request, and my own desire to benefit the fflicted, I hereby certify the great relief I received from the use of HAMPTON'S VEGETA BLE TINCTURE.

I was taken with a violent palpitation, or rather fluttering of the heart, which continued several days; it seemed bough my heart had almost forgotten its office. The family became alarmed and procured a bottle of this valuable medicine, and before I had taken near one bottle of this valuable medicine. HAMPTON'S I was entirely relieved. This is the third instance of relief in my fami-

by the use of this valuable medicine. or three years ago, I was laid up with ulcera-tion of my ankle, from the effect of what is usu ally called a milk leg. I had lost all taste and appetite; and the sore which was some four inches up and down, and half-way around my ankle, rejected every effort to heal it. until rocured HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINC TURE, one bottle of which restored my health healed my ankle, and I am freer from swelling than the last thirty years.

Again, one of my daughters was very low from severe disentery, and when she began to sit up her feet commenced swelling which ir. creased every day, to be very painful-she used a bottle of Hampton's Tincture; the pains were assuaged, the swellings subsided and her health returned-we kept her legs bandaged with strips of woollen until her strength returned. I have been thus particular, that others, under similar circumstances, might be induced to avail themselves of this remedy. Yours with respec FLIZABETH EDWARDS
